

THE PIE PLATES

Nellie Holmes –singer/songwriter, vocals, rhythm guitar

Bernie Coville – mandolin, guitar, vocals

Rick Hare – mandolin, vocals

Gary Barr – stand up bass

Garry Greenland – banjo, vocals

The Pie Plates were nominated for Most Promising Band 2017 and 2019 at the Central Canadian Bluegrass Awards. Put together a group of talented musicians with a passion for great sound and vocal harmonies. Add a little Bluegrass, Country, Americana, Roots and some original tunes, mix it all up and you get a treat for the discerning listener. Their eclectic set list is great for all audiences. They play at festivals, special events, pubs, house parties and more. They continue to create their own unique brand of music and are an energetic band to watch and listen to. You won't be able to keep your feet from tapping and your hands from clapping,

The Pie Plates is a hard working band, rehearsing weekly and playing approximately 20 – 25 shows per year. Their mandate is to put on an engaging and entertaining show. They pride themselves on maintaining a sense of professionalism both on and off the stage.
